The Dixon Browns with a large crowd of followers will leave tomorrow for DeKalb where in the afternoon the two teams will clash for the championship of northern Illinois. Each team will present its very best lineup and with proper weather conditions the game should draw the largest attendance of the year. The contest for the championship was to have been settled last Sunday and the Browns journeyed to DeKalb for that purpose, but a heavy rain, which started shortly after their arrival, caused the game to be postponed for one week.

Catch Robbers of Station Restaurant

New York, Sept. 11.—Crowds of suburban residents rushing for last trains at Grand Central station early today, scurried for cover during a pistol battle between Jacob Mendel, station restaurant proprietor and three men who had knocked him down and taken his day's cash $2,500. Two of the men, after their weapons had been emptied, were arrested and the third calmly left the station among the scores of police who were called. When the police followed a winding stairway leading down into a bakery shop, their flashlights revealed the fugitive, stuck in a barrel of flour, slithering the bag of money.

Hersam who was returning to his home in Canada after visiting at the Hersam home and with relatives in Iowa.

SHOT LITTLE GIRL

Miss Jessie James of Mt. Morris, aged nine years, is in the Dixon hospital in a dangerous condition suffering from a bullet wound in the abdomen. Early in the week she stepped from her home and was shot with a 22 calibre repeating rifle which was in the hands of a ten year old neighbor boy.

The boy was holding the gun while his father was alighting from a conveyance and is said to have pointed it in the direction of another little boy. His father warned him about pointing the rifle and about this time the James girl stepped from her home. The boy pointed the rifle at her at the same time working the ejector. One of 24 bullets was exploded, entering her body near the abdomen. She was hurried to the Dixon hospital where she is receiving treatment. The attending physician stated Friday afternoon that in case no complications arise, her chances for recovery are fairly good.

SLOW PAYMENTS ON RANCH GAVE PARKER WORRY

Had Complained of Pain in Head—Buried Yesterday.

The coroner's jury yesterday afternoon returned a verdict finding that Alva C. Parker came to his death from a gun shot wound self inflicted and while in a temporarily insane condition. The verdict was rendered following the testimony of five witnesses.

Mrs. Adelle Parker, wife of the deceased, testified that in 1904 while engaged at his occupation as undertaker her husband's health broke down and he was forced to give up his business and they went to South Dakota on a ranch. They remained there until this spring when they sold their equipment and farm and came to Dixon. The farm was sold on the payment plan, the initial payment being made but the second payment which fell due on August 20, was not made. This worried her husband greatly and checks from their sale were coming back unpaid, which added to his worry.

Had Pain in Head.

He had complained many times of a pain in his head and recently had worried a great deal over his failing vision and upon two or three occasions had gone to the river after telling the members of the family that he intended taking his own life. Saturday night, she stated, her husband cried out several times as if in great pain and left home Sunday morning after telling his daughter of his plan to do away with himself. He did not return.

Chief Van Bibber, Officer Clarence Seagren, Sheriff Frank Schoenholz and Lem Rollins were the other witnesses who testified before the jury. The body was in such a state of decomposition that it was buried in Oakwood cemetery immediately following the inquest.

Sycamore Man Died at Colony Last Eve

John G. Anderson of Sycamore, died at the Dixon state hospital last evening about 6 o'clock, the cause of death being given as general paralysis of the insane. The body was removed to the Staples, Moyer & Schumm mortuary where it was prepared for burial. The deceased was born in Sycamore, Feb. 27, 1870 and had been a patient of the state colony for a period of about two years. The body was taken overland today to Sycamore, where funeral services will be held and burial will take place.

KID, CAPTURED HERE, ALMOST MADE ESCAPE FROM COPS AT DEKALB

Henry Lewis Gave City
Detectives Real Time
En Route Home.

DeKalb, Ill., Sept. 10.—"Halt! Bing! Bang! Wham!"

The quiet neighborhood in the vicinity of Grove and South Fifth streets got the thrill of its existence last night when the rattle of musketry and the whizz of bullets scared the peaceful householders within an inch of their lives and a wild pursuit of an escaping criminal was staged right in their midst.

In spite of the excitement the whole affair might have furnished the basis for a Charlie Chaplin slapstick.

It all grew out of the daring attempt of Henry Lewis, alleged auto thief taken at Dixon, on his way back to Chicago in the care of three big "bulls" from the Chicago police force, to escape from his captors.

Lewis is a kid about 20 years old, who is accused of being one of a gang of three bandits who held up a man at Forest Park in Chicago last week and escaped in a stolen Ford. He was captured after stealing a tire in Dixon and word was sent the Chicago police. Three huskies from the crime squad were sent out in a big automobile and took the lad from the Dixon authorities to return him to Chicago.

They made the trip all right until they landed here last night and ate their supper in a restaurant. After the conclusion of the meal, the three cops and Lewis got up to start on the rest of their trip. As they neared the cash register Lewis was first and the nearest "detective" was reaching in his pocket for the coin to pay the cashier.

Lewis Made Dash.

A jump, a whirl of gray through the door and Lewis was gone down Fourth street. "Hey, stop him!" bawled the "bulls" and the pursuit was on. The lad flew down Fourth street turned east on Grove and disappeared in the twilight.

After him thundered the flatfoot and just as they got to the corner of Grove street, Reggy Fay sauntered out of the house. Grasping him by the shoulder one of the cops, shouted, "W-w-where did he go?"

"W-w-w-who?" stuttered the frightened Reggy.

"Th-th-that kid, just your size," replied the officer. "There he goes!" and the hunt was on again.

Just as the people in the neighborhood came out, one of the cops thundered "Halt!" and when Lewis put on some more gas the pursuers pulled a cannon and the shots began to fly.

Ran Into Tree.

One woman fainting, a dozen more shrieking and just then Lewis ran into a tree and stopped so suddenly that before he could get started again one of the minions of the law had him by the neck. Had it not been for the tree the lad would have made his escape.

Chagrined by the escape the cops beat the boy up considerably until some of the spectators began to get ready to interfere and then they took him to the machine to start for Chicago. This time, to make things sure, they handcuffed Lewis to the seat and got ready for the start.

"Whirr-r-r-r-r" went the starter but no answering grunt came from the gas. For about 15 minutes the cops fussed with the strater and were about ready to call a garage man, when the prisoner innocently queried, "Why the hell don't you put the key in and let's go."

If the outfit had as much adventure before they got to Chicago as they had here, it was a regular night for them.

Three Attempts to Rob Farm Failed

Carlinville, Ill., Sept. 11.—Robbers who lost one of their number their third attempt to rob the farm of Miss Malissa McCurdy near Bunker Hill, south of here Friday morning, returned in an automobile late yesterday and while keeping up revolver fire against the farm owners, rescued and escaped with their dead comrade's body.

A deputy sheriff was stationed at the farm house following the second attempt of the gang. Shortly after he left, the third visit was paid. Miss McCurdy, who was alone with two nephews, fired several shots, but it was not known that any one had been hit, until the dead body of one of the gang was found in a hay stack yesterday afternoon. Another call for the sheriff was put in, but before he had arrived, the robbers made the fourth visit and removed the body. One shot fired by one of the gang hit one of Miss McCurdy's nephews, but was imbedded in a pocketbook. Miss McCurdy is owner of a 200 acre farm.

COMMITTEE REFUSES TO SUMMON COX; TO MEET AGAIN IN EAST

Chicago Hearing Closed
This Morn—Senator
Edge Quits Quiz.

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Chicago, Sept. 11.—The Senate committee investigating campaign expenditures completed its inquiry here shortly after noon today and recessed to meet either in New York or Washington, Sept. 22.

Plans to meet in Pittsburgh have been abandoned, Chairman Kenyon announced.

Four witnesses who failed to appear today will be heard in the east. They are William Wrigley, Jr., Charles Piez, both of Chicago; W. A. Woodford, Cleveland and George T. Carroll, Elizabeth, N. J.

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Chicago, Sept. 11.—Refusal to summon Governor Cox as a witness before the Senate committee investigating campaign expenses was announced today by Senator Kenyon, chairman. He gave out a telegram received from Frank A. Munsey, eastern publisher, demanding that the Democratic nominee be subpoenaed.

Senator Kenyon's reply was to the effect that Edmond H. Moore had appeared as a personal representative of the Ohio executive and the committee considered that sufficient.

Senator Kenyon said the telegram from Mr. Munsey was typical of hundreds received and indicated that the public announcement of the Munsey message was made in the hope that it might serve as an answer to other telegrams and letters which might be in prospect.

Chicago Quota $500,000.

Frederick C. Barber, of New York, testified that he was brought to Chicago to organize a seven-day drive in this city for the $500,000 which Harry M. Blair said was the Chicago quota.

"Did you ever hear $700,000 mentioned as the amount to be raised in Chicago?" Senator Reed asked.

"Only casually, once or twice," said Mr. Barber.

Senator Reed then asked if that amount had not been named in authorized statements sent from headquarters to Chicago newspapers.

The witness said he had no definite knowledge of that circumstance.

Caleb Enix, assistant city editor of the Chicago Daily News was called. He said he had received an announcement from Republican headquarters naming $700,000 as the Chicago quota and had used the information in a news story.

Senator Edge Absent.

The committee opened its final hearing here today with Senator Edge of New Jersey, absent. Senator Edge in a statement said "slush fund" charges made by Governor Cox, had "been given even more consideration than they deserve."

Today's hearing was marked by the appearance of the girls at Aberdeen, the internal revenue office at Aberdeen, S. D., who Congressman Royal Johnson of that state charged, were solicited for $40 each to aid the Democratic campaign. It was planned to have the final testimony, concluded by noon today, and the remaining four committee members expected to leave shortly after.

The next session will be held Sept. 22, according to present plans, in some eastern city to be selected by Senator Kenyon.

How girl employees of the internal revenue office at Aberdeen, S. D., were solicited to contribute to a Democratic campaign fund was described to the committee by Miss Eunice Coyne, a reporter on the Aberdeen Daily News. She said the girls were asked for $40 each by E. M. Waterbury of Centerville, S. D., who came to Aberdeen and described himself as an agent of Clarence Mee, father of J. Walter Mee revenue collector at Aberdeen. Miss Coyne said the girls were also told that Clarence Mee was chairman of a state wide organization collecting the Democratic funds. It then developed that the envelopes had been addressed merely "city" and that the missives had been delivered at the girls' homes.

"There was one cent due on each" added Miss Coyne.

"What!" exclaimed Senator Kenyon "did they even ask the girls to pay postage on the letters?" and he and Senators Reed and Pomerene agreed that the episode was "despicable and inexcusable."

Occupancy Chemical Works.

More than 200 chemical works here were occupied by workmen at a given signal late today, and Red flags were hoisted above them on orders issued by the Chamber of Labor.

The workers obeyed the order received from the Chamber of Labor in spite of the fact that they were recently granted wage increases of from 60 to 70 cents per day.

Dismissed Charge of Larceny Friday

On motion of State's Attorney Wm. Leach, the charge of larceny preferred against Arthur H. Reyn was dismissed in Justice A. H. Hannekan's court yesterday afternoon and the prisoner released. Reyn was arrested by the Aurora police Sunday morning when R. Rangel, Mexican employed at the cement plant appealed to them saying that Reyn had stolen his check for the sum of $56.04. Reyn was brought back to Dixon and held in the county jail until yesterday afternoon when his case was set for a hearing and then dismissed.

Kvale as the Republican nominee for congress in the seventh district, the Minnesota state supreme court also eliminated Congressman A. J. Volstead as the nominee. LOOK TO PREMIER IN ITALIAN INDUSTRIAL CRISIS; MAY NOT ACT

In Constant Touch With Industrial Centers of the Nation.

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Turin, Italy, Sept. 10.—(By Associated Press)—All Italy has again turned to Premier Giolitti, expecting him to bring about a solution of the difficult crisis which has arisen in the industrial life of the country. He is spending a short time at Bardonecchia, a little village near the French frontier, where he has gone for 38 summers to spend his vacation.

From Bardonecchia, the premier is in direct telephonic communication with all the principal Italian cities, chiefly with Rome, Milan, Turin and Genoa. Even the possibility of wire interruptions has been foreseen and a wireless station has been erected.

Signor Giolitti is credited with saying:

"The state does not consist only of employers and metal workers, but there is a great residuum of millions of other people, for whom it is preferable to go through a momentary paralysis of this very important field of national activity than to face the dangerous general convulsion which might follow government interference on either side. Some maladies like this are better left to nature and time, the greatest healers."

TRIEST RIOTS QUELLED.

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Trieste, Sept. 10.—(By Associated Press)—A Socialist revolt in which barricades were erected in the streets and artillery and rifles, machine guns and bombs were freely employed in a struggle between the rioters and the military broke out here this afternoon. Italian troops and naval forces, however, had succeeded by 8 o'clock tonight in completely restoring order. At that hour the troops were patrolling the streets and a destroyer anchored in the harbor commanded the public square.

Several soldiers were wounded, while numerous casualties occurred in the Socialist ranks.

MANY REACH COMPROMISE.

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Milan, Sept. 10.—Excitement is intense in this city as to the possible decision of the Confederation of Labor relative to the movement on the part of the metal workers to occupy and operate industrial plants throughout Italy. There is a spirit of compromise in the air and it is believed that meetings between employers and representatives of workmen which continued today, will result in some sort of adjustment of the situation.

Occupancy Chemical Works.

More than 200 chemical works here were occupied by workmen at a given signal late today, and Red flags were hoisted above them on orders issued by the Chamber of Labor.

The workers obeyed the order received from the Chamber of Labor in spite of the fact that they were recently granted wage increases of from 60 to 70 cents per day.

"DUPLICITY" CHARGE MADE BY HARDING: DANIELS CRIES "STRADDLING" ON COVENANT

DANIELS SARCASTIC
AS HE DISCUSSES G.
O. P. LEAGUE PLANKS

Says Republicans "Straddle" Issue; Hits at Harding.

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Kittery, Maine, Sept. 11.—The Republican attitude toward the League of Nations was described at a straddle and the party was accused of paltering with the greatest moral issue that ever confronted mankind, in an address by Secretary of the Navy Daniels at a political rally here today.

Secretary referred to the speech of Governor Coolidge at Portland as a dexterous attempt to extricate his party from its "selfish and parochial position."

"The first half of his speech said Mr. Daniels, 'was to declare for American participation in world affairs, and it was essentially sound. But by reason of the straddle policy of his party, Governor Coolidge had to repudiate his splendid recital of American due to the world, as well as to itself, and he made a lame and impotent conclusion by approving Harding's toothless (Hague tribunal)."

Governor Coolidge was impelled by a desire to 'have repudiating the now-you-see-it and now-you-don't attitude of the head of the ticket' Mr. Daniels said.

ASKS ATTITUDE

"What is the Republican attitude on the League of Nations?" he continued. "Does anybody know? Does Harding know? Does Coolidge know? If so, are not the voters entitled to be told instead of asked to vote in the dark? Here in Maine, on the Atlantic coast, Governor Coolidge advocates American participation in world affairs. In California, Hiram Johnson and Borah declare we must have no alliances or participation in any enterprise that touches European nations, and the bitter-enders will have no part of the League, no matter how many nullifying reservations Mr. Lodge attaches to it. East is east and west is west."

Mr. Taft and Mr. Hughes and Mr. Coolidge declare we must go in or stay in with our allies to insure world peace, each proposing some sort of method which may or may not be workable.

"Is this conflict of opinion irreconcilable? Will the Republicans split on such divergent views? Are their convictions stronger than their hatred and envy of Wilson? Not on your life. Where will they find a place for common and united opposition where they can all declare by their actions, not out of harmony with their dignity?"

"We stand at Armageddon and straddle for the Lord."

"Fortunately for them," unfortunately for our country, there is a common divisor at Marion. Harding furnishes the common ground. He speaks of ten. His speeches recall the statement of Gardiner, the English writer, who speaking of a certain eminent British statesman said: 'He talks much on every subject, but nobody has ever been found who remembers anything he has ever said.'

But the demand for a clear and unequivocal statement by the president candidate became so persistent that Colonel George Harvey and other eminent statesmen hurried to Marion for a conference. And later Senator Harding became vocal with a clear-cut policy. He did not repudiate his vote for the League with the Lodge nullification policy. That would offend some. He therefore made a clear, straightforward, convincing and unequivocal declaration that he stood for the Hague tribunal. The mountain was in labor and brought forth a mouse."

"We must readjust our tariff, and this time with especial regard for the new economic menaces to our American agriculture as well as factory."

"We must readjust our Internal taxation, especially the excess profits tax, to remove the burdens it imposes upon the will to create and produce."

"One wishes to be both charitable and considerate," he continued, "but it is hard to believe that this very marked discrepancy was perpetrated without intention." The senator's declarations were made in two front porch speeches to delegations of business men from Chicago and several Michigan and Indiana cities. Through them, he said, he wanted to send a message of reassurance to all Americans interested in business.

Deprecating the tendency to think of business only in terms of "big business," the nominee declared success in financial affairs should no longer be held a crime. He advocated the establishment of a budget system in the federal government, declared the postal service must be put on a new basis, and continued:

"We must readjust our tariff, and this time with especial regard for the new economic menaces to our American agriculture as well as factory."

"We must readjust our Internal taxation, especially the excess profits tax, to remove the burdens it imposes upon the will to create and produce."

A BOOK WORTH WHILE.

Worthy of a place in the library of every American is Joe Mitchell Chaplin's latest volume, "Warren G. Harding, The Man." In eighteen intensely interesting chapters, the Boston author and editor of the National Magazine from "The Call to Leadership" to "A Sturdy Champion of Americanism," and gives pen sketches of the distinguished Ohioan from boyhood to his present lofty estate. The book is illustrated handsomely. Copies, already in possession of Ohio people, are prized highly.—The Ohio Republican.

The variety of peaches known as clingstones are usually avoided by the housekeeper when she can on account of the difficulty of stoning them.

But there is a way to remove the stones that makes it possible to use these peaches and as the clingstones are often the finest flavored and firmest peach it is well worth while canning them.

Before peeling cut with a sharp knife around the peach following the seam on the fruit. Then quickly twist one half off the other. With a sharp-pointed knife cut the stone away from the half that holds it. The fruit must not be over-ripe for the flesh will crush and the skin slip in the twisting.

Menu for Tomorrow

Breakfast—Orange juice, waffles, sirup, coffee.

Luncheon—Baked sweet potatoes, cold baked ham, brown bread and butter, peach cup, drop cakes, tea.

Dinner—Baked beans, stuffed baked tomatoes, apple and celery salad, toasted crackers, blackberry pie, coffee.

My Own Recipes

Baked ham is always good but it has not the delicious spiciness of a baked ham. The vinegar that has been sweetened and spiced for sweet pickles is a good substitute for the "old Madeira" in which the famous Virginian hams were baked.

BAKED SWEET POTATOES

5 sweet potatoes
1/2 cup brown sugar
1-3 cup water
1 teaspoon lichen juice
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
Salt and pepper.
Boil sugar and water until a soft ball is formed in water. Add lemon juice and nutmeg. Bake or boil potatoes till nearly done. Peel and cut in halves lengthwise. Put in a buttered baking dish rounded side down. Dot with bits of butter, sprinkle with salt and pepper and pour over part of the sirup. Add remaining potatoes, salt, pepper and butter. Pour over rest of sirup. Bake until slightly browned. Serve from the baking dish.

PEACH CUP

4 large peaches
1 pint orange ice
Raspberry sauce.
Put the peaches, sliced, in high-standing sherbet glasses, one peach for each glass. Fill the glass with the ice and pour raspberry sauce over the whole.

Probably Mrs. Hubbard's cupboard was bare because Mr. Hubbard had

If a glass fruit can cracks when filling it with boiling fruit don't throw it away.

A common ordinary crack does not destroy the usefulness of the jar. Staple groceries are kept free from dust if stored in these cans. A quart can will hold two pounds of brown sugar, beans, corn-meal, or any of the things a housekeeper buys by bulk in small quantities.

The pint jars will take care of a pound. The glass jars surely look neater in a cupboard than many paper bags. And a paper bag has to be opened or felt of, to know what is in it, while a glance will suffice when the supplies are put in glass.

Menu for Tomorrow.

BREAKFAST—Cereal with bananas, toast, marmalade, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Bacon in cream gravy, baked potatoes, lettuce salad, huckleberry pudding, tea.

DINNER—Broiled hamburger steak, baked summer squash, stringless beans, marshmallow salad, toasted crackers, coffee.

My Own Recipes.

The luncheon of a salad, bread and butter and tea that is so satisfying to most women is never a happy choice when men are to be served. With the exception of the pudding the menu is very simple and means no "fussing."

BACON IN CREAM GRAVY.

4 slices bacon.
1 1/2 cups milk.
1 teaspoon butter.
1 tablespoon flour.
Paprika.
Fry bacon after cutting in inch pieces. Use 1 teaspoon of bacon fat and 1 teaspoonful of butter and make a cream sauce of the melted fat, flour and milk. Season with paprika. Add bacon and serve at once. Thick slices of ripe tomatoes may be broiled, put on a piece of hot toast and the bacon in cream sauce poured over.

MARSHMALLOW SALAD.

12 marshmallows.
1/2 cup diced celery.
1/2 cup white grapes.
1/2 cup chopped English walnuts.

1/2 cup diced pineapple.
But marshmallows in quarters. Remove seeds from berries. Mix all ingredients with sweet bottled dressing. Arrange on hearts of lettuce. Put a spoonful of unsweetened whipped cream on top of each service. Add a sprig of fresh mint and serve.

At six one hates to go to bed, at sixteen one hates to get up, at twenty-six one hates to do either. MARY.

First Accident on Cement Pavement

An account of the first serious accident on the new Dixon-Stirling cement road, which was formally opened to traffic Monday, is given in the following from Friday evening's Sterling Gazette:

James Jarvis returning home from Dixon in company with other members of a local orchestra, sustained injuries to his leg as a result of the car in which he was riding overturning just east of this city. Mr. Jarvis was the only man in the car to sustain an injury although they were all badly shaken up. They were coming this way on the paving at a moderate rate of speed when they met a car going east at a high rate of speed and with bright lights. The lights blinded the driver of the Sterling car and one wheel left the pavement, going into the soft dirt at the side of the paving and causing the car to swerve into the ditch.

ILLINOIS VETERANS ANXIOUS TO WALLOP BIG BILL AT POLLS

Service Men Pass Out the Word to "Watch the Vote of the Vets."

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 11.—Watch the vote of the boys who fought over there. This is the word that is being passed out from one end of Illinois to the other by service men.

It is the first time they have had a chance to vote for a governor since the war and they are not going to give the office to a man supported by Mayor Thompson, whose speeches were thought good enough war material by the enemy to drop them behind the American lines in France to discourage American soldiers.

The candidacy of Lieutenant Governor John G. Oglesby, the anti-Thompson candidate for the Republican nomination for governor has met with a strong response from the world war veterans. Oglesby, aside from being a veteran of the Spanish American war, was lieutenant governor when the boys from Illinois were fighting in France and also a member of the Illinois Council of Defense.

Soldiers and Fight.
Two of the world war veterans who distinguished themselves across the seas and who are leading the fight for the nomination of Oglesby are Col. John V. Cinnin of the 181st Infantry and Col. Abel Davis of the 132nd Infantry.

Speaking of the candidacy of Lieut. Governor Oglesby, Col. Cinnin says: "Elect John G. Oglesby as governor and you will not have to fear that your property will be confiscated in taxes."

YOU TELL 'EM

While politicians have been pointing with alarm at various ills in the body politic, that justly famous American sense of humor remains steadily on the job. It declines to wear crepe and throughout the nation man, woman and child are having a good time at the merry sport of ringing the changes on "You Tell 'Em."

You tell 'em, Mississippi, you have a big mouth.

You tell 'em, skyscraper, you have a lot of stories.

These are sample germs of the pun-epidemic that has swept the land, sparring few sections. Making "you-tell-'em" has become a favorite indoor sport at parties; newspapers are offering prizes for the best "you-tell-em" and the pun is in many varieties has become, at least temporarily, a favorite in the American idiom.

The history of punning runs back to the time of the ancient Greeks, but no form of pun ever has received so democratic a reception as this one that is keeping a nation in good humor during dry days.

As old Dr. Addison, the celebrated English essayist said—irreverent pun-sters probably will here exclaim, "You tell 'em, doctor, you have the patients!"
—as old Dr. Addison said:

"The seeds of punning are in the minds of all men, and though they may be subdued by reason, reflection and good sense, they will be very apt to shoot up in the greatest genius. It is indeed impossible to kill a weed which the soil has a natural disposition to produce."

And let no candidate for office take himself too seriously this fall, nor attempt to deplore a state of affairs in which a people pun while the burning issues smolder. For the punster will be quick to exclaim:

"You tell 'em where to sleep, Mr.
Candidate, you have the bunk!"

WATCH TEXAS

Seventy-three years ago the last battle of the Mexican war was fought,
and wop, General Scott defeated General Santa Anna at Chapultepec, and the way to Mexico City was open to American forces.

That victory, and the war, virtually ended by that battle, pointed attention to a new page of history, a page entitled "Texas." Much has been written on the page in the intervening 73 years, and there is promise of more and even greater progress. This promise may be gleaned from a statement just issued by the U. S. census office.

Nine counties are listed as "the fastest growing counties." They are leaders in population growth of over 1500 counties announced. Four of these counties are in Texas, Cisco, Lubbock, Presidio and Lamb.

Florida has the topnotcher, Dade, population increase 258 per cent; Baco-Co, Colo., is next and Imperial-Co., Calif., ranks third. Then come two Texas counties and Ottawa, Okla. Another Texas county and Franklin, Ill.
and then another Texas county.

Who was that American statesman,
who in 1848 said: "When you get Texas you get a fine collection of rattlesnakes and cactus, and the longer you keep Texas the more rattlesnakes and cactus you'll get?"

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

Orrie Owl Takes a Nap

Everything was quiet in the Meadow Grove School as Mr. Scribble Scratch, the fairy schoolmaster, gave out the sums.

This was the problem. "Billy had five mosquito bites on each of his legs, how many bites did he have?"
Chappy Chipmunk held up his hand. "Please, sir," said he, "is Billy a little boy, or a goat, or a daddy-long-legs, or a thousand-legged?"

Mr. Scribble Scratch looked over his glasses. "What do mosquitoes bite mostly?" he asked.

"Ha!" said the schoolmaster, "I'll just reach in and give him a poke."

Chappy thought a moment. "Little boys in their bare feet, I guess," he answered.

"Right!" said Scratch and went on with the next question, while everybody counted on his fingers and toes what two times five would make.

Now while they were all thinking hard, Orrie Owl in his hole in the tree suddenly began to snore like everything. "Bz-z-z-z! M-m-m-m!
Bz-z-z-z!" he went like a sing-song.

IMMUNITY TO DISEASE.

Physicians now know that almost every person possesses a certain amount of immunity to various diseases, an immunity which may be inherited, as that due to the transmission of antitoxin from mother to offspring, or may be acquired, as that which follows an attack of communicable disease.

It is largely to the great French scientist, Pasteur, that we owe an understanding of this immunity. Studying the fact that recovery from an attack of some of the common communicable diseases, such as measles, scarlet fever and smallpox makes the person immune to these diseases for life, Pasteur thought it might be possible to produce attacks of disease in healthy individuals in such fashion that they would thereafter be protected. As a matter of fact he made his experiment with anthrax, a disease of cattle which at that time caused enormous losses in the cattle industry in France. His problem was artificially to produce a mild attack of the disease, something which would not cause any loss of the animals, but which would nevertheless bring about the necessary immunity. He finally found that this could be done by heating the anthrax germs and so weakening them. His work was so remarkably successful that he was everywhere recognized as the savior of the French cattle industry.

It must not be supposed, however,
that Pasteur had had no previous experience to guide him. As a matter of fact he gave credit to the immortal Jenner for the idea of artificially protecting against disease by the use of weakened living germs. Jenner, it may be recalled, in 1796 showed that the introduction of cowpox germs
through a slight scratch in the skin produced a pustule which protected
the person against smallpox.

Thanks largely to the careful scientific work of Pasteur and his successors we now know that cowpox smallpox is really a smallpox germ which has been altered by being passed through a calf. Once it has changed from human smallpox into cowpox, it can never give smallpox to a person into whose skin the virus is introduced.

Vaccination is a safe and mild procedure, and constitutes the only protection against smallpox. Is your child protected? If not be sure to have him vaccinated before school opens.

A maid who was to work 8 hours a day came that morning. She was in fact, a maid I had employed before I went to Mexico, and she returned to work according to the 1920 plan. It had been a question with me whether I preferred to have her arrive early enough to get the breakfasts, or at a later hour and remain to prepare the dinner. I found I did not have to settle such problems. We settled all points as the maid preferred.

Having been with me previously,
Matilda knew the routine of the house.
It wasn't necessary for me to leave my suite that morning until she summoned me to breakfast. Bob had not entered my room. I maintained a dignified silence. I had concluded that explanations were due more than one way. But I wouldn't ask him where he had been the previous night, nor why he had not phoned.

I sent Matilda to summon Bob to breakfast. I let him go down stairs, I let him stand by his chair several minutes before I entered the breakfast alcove.

I had given up hoping that he would welcome me with arms outstretched. If the tiniest feeling of tenderness for me survived in his heart he would guess the hurt in mine, would appreciate the torture I was enduring. And he would have come to me upstairs.

I had put on a white taffeta breakfast coat, one of those quaint buffeted things which are the latest mode.
I was as white as the silk itself. Usually Bob would have been frightened to see me so pallid, so "spirit-covered my state before I left my room, he would have insisted that my coffee be brought up to me, and he would have stayed to wait upon me, and to share my meal, he would have sworn that he couldn't eat a mouthful

in the dining-room—alone.

That was as things should be between us. But—that morning—Bob made no comment upon my appearance.

I wished him a cheerful "good morning" as if nothing had happened.
He was surprised. He expected an exhibition of nerves—anything but peace and silence about yesterday.

It occurred to me that I had discovered a first-class policy for grieved and peevish wives.

Wives fail in domestic diplomacy by giving away their hands, by talking too much. I suppose they simply can't help talking themselves hoarse when the husband is the one from whom a spunk they would confuse the man and come nearer to a reconciliation.

I smiled quite gayly, although my poor heart was going at a horrid rate, as if I were embarrassed. And I asked questions about the new car.

Oglesby Stands Against Giving Over Illinois to Thompsonism

John G. Oglesby, Republican candidate for governor, stands for the National Republican platform as adopted, without evasion and without seeking to subvert it in any way. He opposes the Thompson socialistic platform.

PUBLIC UTILITIES—Good service at cost price. No undue profits. Will recommend the Legislature to provide relief for any present just complaints. If Legislature continues the State Utilities Act, will appoint competent commission. If they adopt Home Rule will sign measure. NO HONEST MAN COULD PROMISE MORE.

OUR SERVICE MEN—Will be guided by what the men determine by their own votes in their own Legion Posts as to what is best for them.

AGRICULTURE—Encouragement by the state of co-operative efforts by the farmers for the marketing of their produce.

LABOR—Recognizes the justice of collective bargaining and a closer relationship between employer and employee.

ROADS—Immediate letting of contracts for filling and grading over the entire mileage contemplated, to be followed by hard surfacing as rapidly as conditions will permit.

TEACHERS AND SCHOOLS—Hon. Robert C. Moore, secretary Illinois Teachers' association, writes: "Your plank on education is one of the best and most liberal statements of its kind ever issued by any candidate for governor."

THOMPSONISM adopted a platform advocating confiscation of property and stirring class hatred—selected candidates—is managing an insistent, completely financed campaign. Why?

Because Thompsonism seeks to control Illinois.

the lips on a nice broad knife.
But this pleasant practice was ditched when a few careless persons swallowed their knives. Surgeons didn't like being called away from faces of careless knife handlers.

So knife juggling at tables ceased.

The anti-knife law, though, really owed its existence to the gang then putting newly invented forks on the market.

So goes the knife.

Years and years ago, when only the best people had knives on the table it was a mark of distinction to be able to use a knife on one's food.

Before them, the diners used a sharp stick to spear their food out of the common stew bowl.

Did you know that when the stick custom was first inaugurated those happy folks who had been digging the roast beef out of the kettle with their hands kicked like blazes?

They insisted one could get his share only by going after the food with his hands. Others said this was unfair to persons with small hands.

The small-hand crowd won. Eating sticks came in, to be followed by the knife, and then the fork.

GROVER W. GEHANT

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR

STATE'S ATTORNEY

TO THE MEN AND WOMEN VOTERS OF LEE COUNTY:

I respectfully submit the following facts in support of my candidacy:

The office of State's Attorney requires a man of Experience, Decision and Ability;

Born in 1885, (old enough for the job);

Admitted to the bar in 1911;

Served as Deputy Clerk to Circuit Court of Lee
County for about one year;

Have actually and successfully tried many cases,

MEMBERS PALMYRA COW TESTING ASSN. HAD GREAT MEETING

Took Part in Judging
Dairy Cows at Coleta
Farm Home.

About fifty members and friends of the Palmyra Co-Operative Cow Testing Association gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Overholser of Coleta, Tuesday evening, for the September meeting. The fore part of the evening was spent in a social way, until all had arrived when the guests adjourned to the yard where a cow judging contest proved to be the center of interest.

E. O. Thiem of the University of Illinois, ex-tester of the association gave an exceptionally good discussion of the various points influencing the selection of a good type dairy cow and illustrated his discussion with one of Mr. Overholser's good cows. Mr. Thiem took up in detail the various points determining the form, quality, condition and dairy temperament of a good dairy cow, and emphasized the types one should avoid as well as the one to choose when picking a good dairy cow. The demonstration was exceptionally good and was so clear that every one present felt confident he could pick the boarder cow from the high producer.

Judged Three Cows
After the individual demonstration by Mr. Thiem, a ring of three cows was judged by those present, and the placings were made according to dairy type and conformation. Discussions by the members of the different points which influenced their decisions made the time pass all too quickly, but it was surprising how well the placings agreed with the last year's records the cows made in the cow testing association. The cow placed first was found to have a record of nearly 12,000 lbs. milk and the second and third choices had records of 8000 to 6500 lbs. respectively.

After the cow judging the members returned to the house where vocal selections were rendered by Mrs. Con Brown of Wyand, Ill., and a scramble refreshments consisting of sandwiches, baked beans, coffee, pickles, salad, jello, ice cream, cake and cookies were served. At a late hour the guests departed for their homes, voting the meeting one of the most successful of the year, and greatly enthused over the help received from the demonstration.

At the business meeting an invitation from Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Downing to hold the October meeting at their home in Galt was read and unanimously accepted. Mr. Downing has one of the high herds of the association, and the committee in charge of the program hopes to include an-

SEAT SALE TO OPEN FOR CARMEN TONIGHT

Reservations Can Be Made for Coming Opera Attraction.

Manager Charles Eastman of the Assembly Auditorium announces that the advance sale of reserved seats for the Ralph Dunbar mammoth production of "Carmen" will be opened at Rowland Bros. drug store tonight at 7 o'clock. The sale will be continued daily until the arrival of the attraction, Sept. 17.

All requests for seats will be handled in the order of their receipt. It is predicted that every seat for "Carmen" will be disposed of at the advance sale.

A very definite chart of the seating arrangement of the Assembly Auditorium, where this great production is to be staged, has been perfected so that patrons making seat reservations will know where their seats will be situated.

To present "Carmen" in Dixon two carloads of exceptionally extra people scenery is necessary. Sixty people appear in the production of twenty, besides a band on stage in the famous fourth act on the Seville bull-ring, where Escamillo (James Stevens) is the fighter. In addition a chorus of adorable women and debonaire young men with marvelous voices participate.

Mr. Dunbar is said to have spent $65,000 to costume this spectacular production. The costumes worn by Miss Lorna Doone Jackson, acting and singing the title role of "Carmen" which were designed in Paris and adapted in Madrid, arrived from abroad last week. It is pointed out that the presentation of Carmen here will be the most opalescent in view of the fact that this will be the sixth performance and all the scenery, costumes and effects will be bright and new.

Work will be begun Monday to get the Assembly Auditorium in shape for this extraordinary event. The stage is said to be wonderfully adapted to the production in view of its large size and wonderful acoustics. Those are declared by Al Sweet, head of the White Hussars band here two weeks ago, to be the best in the country.

SUFFERING OF YOUNG WOMEN

This Letter Tells How it May be Overcome—all Mothers Interested.

Fort Dodge, Ia.—"From the time my daughter was 13 years old until she was 16 she suffered so badly each month that sometimes I had to call in the doctor. She had headaches, backache and such pains and cramps that she would have to stay in bed two or three days. She became terribly run down in health and at last a friend who had used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound told her about it and she has used 16 bottles, and we always have it in the house. She feels fine now and she has no trouble at all each month. We always praise it and advise any friends who suffer to use your wonderful medicine."—Mrs. MINNIE MANDELKO, 1005 S. 18th St., & 10th Ave., Fort Dodge, Iowa.

Girls who are troubled as Miss Mandelko was, should immediately seek restoration to health by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Those who need special advice may write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. These letters will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

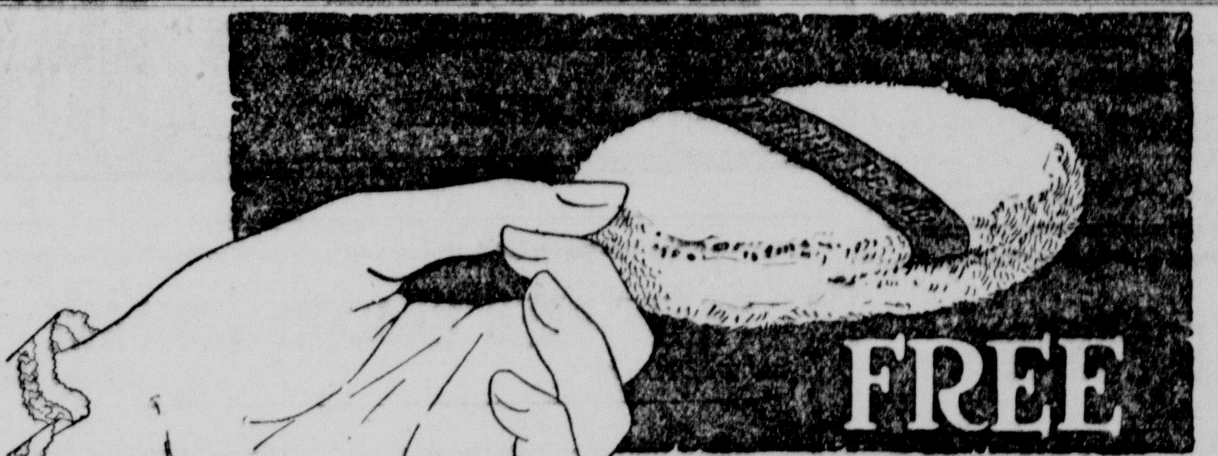

WHEN YOU WAKE UP DRINK GLASS OF HOT WATER

Wash the poisons and toxins from system before putting more food into stomach. Says inside-bathing makes anyone look and feel clean, sweet and refreshed.

Wash yourself on the inside before breakfast like you do on the outside. This is vastly more important because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing illness, while the bowel pores do. For every ounce of food and drink taken into the stomach, nearly an ounce of waste material must be carried out of the body. If this waste material is not eliminated day by day it quickly ferments and generates poisons, gases and toxins which are absorbed or sucked into the blood stream, through the lymph ducts which should suck only nourishment to sustain the body.

A splendid health measure is to drink, before breakfast each day, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, which is a harmless way to wash these poisons, gases and toxins from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels; thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

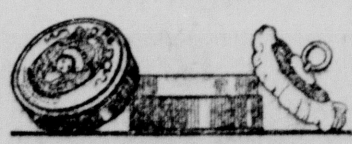

A quartet pound of limestone phosphate is but very little at the drug store but is sufficient to make anyone an enthusiast on inside-bathing. Men and women who are accustomed to wake up with a dull, aching head or have furred tongue, bad taste, nasty breath, shallow complexion, others who have bilious attacks, acid stomach or constipation are assured of pronounced improvement in both health and appearance shortly.

EXPERIENCE NECESSARY
EDWARD E. WINGERT
Republican Candidate for States Attorney, at Primary September 15.
The State's Attorney is the legal protector of the people and their property, and their efficient defense was never more needed than now in this age of unrest, when grave crimes are increasing rapidly.
He is also the attorney for the County, a corporation of nearly 30,000 people, in its complex business affairs.
Whatever else the State's Attorney may be HE MUST BE A TRIAL LAWYER of demonstrated capacity. This capacity can only be shown by years of experience. The office, paying $2900 a year should be no field for experiment.
I have, in 31 years at the bar, tried many hundreds of cases, and in all the counties of the Circuit. This experience has not been limited to one sort, but has covered all kinds, criminal as well as civil. It is conceded that I can try suits successfully and without aid, and if elected I agree to ask no help from the County Board.
Where consulted in advance no client has ever lost money by relying on my advice.
I have never asked for or held any elective office, and do not believe that holding many offices justly entitles the holder to have others. I want this for one term only, and then another may have a chance.
Both men and women may vote at this primary and the support of all will be appreciated.
